Workplace Workout - the fitness regime for your workplace pension

Dear ${txt},

In the world of financial fitness, we're big believers in taking things one little step at a time. Just like starting at the gym, it's best if you ease into a routine and get yourself pumped up and excited about the progress you'll make.

You've already been set up with an online account, so you can view your contributions and see what's in your pension pot right now by logging into PlanViewer.

Knowing how healthy your retirement savings are is a positive step to better financial fitness.

Top tip: Take control of your online account by reviewing your personal details when you log in.
